

STANILAND ACADEMY

EQUALITY & DIVERSITY

INTRODUCTION

Staniland Academy aims to ensure equality of opportunity for all its staff and pupils and it follows that no staff member or pupil will be discriminated against, or will be disadvantaged because of race, disability, religion or belief, sexual orientation or gender reassignment, age or gender.

Please read this policy in conjunction with:

- Confidential Reporting
- Equal Opportunity
- Disability Equality
- Race Equality

DEFINITION OF DISCRIMINATION

Direct Discrimination:

Is unlawful for all except in some circumstances of age and disability. Direct discrimination is when a person is treated less favourably than others in comparable circumstances. In the case of direct age discrimination, this is unlawful only if it cannot be objectively justified.

Indirect Discrimination:

This occurs when a provision, criterion or practice is applied equally to all, but has a different impact on members of one or more protected groups, so someone is placed at a disadvantage as a result. Indirect discrimination is unlawful unless it can be justified for reasons unrelated to the characteristic in question.

Victimisation:

Is unwanted conduct, which violates a person's dignity or creates an intimidation, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them is unlawful.
